Market trends

:: AKER BRYGGE, OSLO:
TERMINALBYGGET::

Rental market Oslo

- Minor revision of space vacancy to 8.0 per cent
- Still limited new supply in 2015 and 2016
- Strong residential markets – and continued conversion of offices to residential
- Public sector tenants increasingly important in most areas
- More selective market and pressure on rents in most areas; particularly in West-corridor (Lysaker and south west)

Rental market Stavanger

- Rental markets continue to be challenging as oil- and offshore businesses focus on cost reductions

Transaction market still healthy

- Strong transaction markets
- Yield compression in most segments
- Swap-rates decreasing during Q3, but pressure upwards on credit margins
- International investors continue to be active, alongside pension funds and private structures in search of yield

Q3 – 2015 Significant lease contracts

• Monier – Verkstedveien 1, Skøyen

- Mars/Wrigley/Royal Canin (*) 1 194 sqm
- Several smaller tenants
- Letting ratio now 76 per cent (increase from 73 per cent)

• Nydalen Gjerdrumsvei 8

- EFG Hov Dokka (*) 1 236 sqm
- Building now fully let

• Verkstedhallene (Stranden 3)

- McCann Worldwide 2 926 sqm

Following election in Oslo in September

Property tax to be introduced in Oslo

Property tax

- Planned introduction from 2017, but not approved as of today
 - 0.2 per cent of taxation value in 2017
 - 0.3 per cent of taxation value in 2018 and onwards
- Likely method for taxation value is standardised sqm-values, adjusted with a factor based on location

Effect for property value

- Additional cost for property owners, thus likely negative effect on property value
- Over time property owners are likely to try to increase rents to cover additional cost
- Limited transactional evidence on effect on property value so far

Effects for Norwegian Property

- Current standard contract includes clause on adjustment for property tax, but exceptions in older contracts, acquired buildings etc.
- Effectively appr. 40 per cent of annual contracted rent has clauses for adjustments for property tax
